

STEN NORDIN

MAYOR OF STOCKHOLM

Personal

Born in 1956 in Nyköping. Moved to Stockholm in 1984, after having spent a few years in Uppsala. Married to Hanna Hesser Nordin. Two teenage children, a girl and a boy. Resident of Södermalm in central Stockholm.

Studies

- Graduated from Tessinskolan High School in 1975.
- Studies in Economics and Sociology at Uppsala University.

Student politics

- Chairman of the conservative students' association Heimdal 1980-1981.
- Vice Chairman of the Confederation of Swedish Conservative and Liberal Students 1981-1982.
- Federal Secretary of the Confederation of Swedish Conservative and Liberal Students 1982-1985.

Employment

- Employed at the Swedish Taxpayers' Association 1985-1988, initially in the campaign for lowered marginal taxes, subsequently as Marketing Manager.
- Employed by Supreme Administrative Court Justice Gustaf Petrén in the Civil Rights Movement Freedom in Sweden, working with liberties and rights issues.

- Once more employed at the Swedish Taxpayers' Association 1989-1992, among other things as Editor in Chief of Common Sense magazine (Swedish: Sunt förnuft).
- Employed at the National Organization of the Moderate Party 1992-1994, as Editor for the party's magazine The Citizen (Swedish: Medborgaren).

Previous Public Office Positions

- Various commissions pertaining to social services 1986-1994.
- Party group leader and spokesperson in the City of Stockholm's Social Services Committee 1994.
- Member of the City of Stockholm's Executive Board 1994-2006.
- Vice Mayor in opposition 1994-1998, party group leader in the Social Services Committee, subsequently Vice Chairman of the High School and Labour Market Committee, Vice Chairman of the Personnel Committee.
- Vice Mayor for Traffic and Real Estate and personnel 1998-2002. Chairman of Stockholm International Fairs.
- Vice Mayor in opposition 2002-2006, Vice Chairman of the Traffic and Real Estate Committee.
- Deputy group leader of the Moderate Party District Council party group 1998-2006.
- Member of the Executive Board of the Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions 2002-2006.
- Vice Chairman of the Stockholm-Mälars Region Council 2003-2005.

Parliament

- Member of the Swedish Parliament 2006-2008.
- Member of the Committee on Transport and Communications, Deputy Member of the Committee on Taxation, Member of the Moderate Party Parliament Group Council of Trustees [??förtroenderåd??].
- Appointed the government's spokesperson for dialogue with municipal governments on asylum seekers.

The Moderate Party

- Chairman of the Stockholm Regional Section of the Moderate Party since 2003.

Citizens' Educational Association

- Chairman of the Stockholm Regional Section of the Citizens' Educational Association (Swedish: Medborgarskolan) 2000-2008.

Current Public Office Positions

- Mayor and Chairman of the Executive Board of the City of Stockholm since 2008.
- Chairman of Stockholm International Fairs since 2008.
- Member of the Executive Board of the Swedish Transport Administration since 2010.